

Association of Diagnostic Imaging Technologists (ADIT)

Questions and Answers Concerning Your Dues:

Association of Diagnostic Imaging Technologists (ADIT) represents your position with your ADIT Hospital. Listed below are some commonly asked questions and answers related to being a Union (Contract) employee -

1. How much are the dues?

- If you are regularly scheduled 64 to 80 hours/pay period, your dues will be $16.00/pay period.
- If you are regularly scheduled less than 64 hours/pay period, your dues will be $8.00/pay period.
- If you are scheduled as a Casual or Per Diem, your dues will be $8.00/pay period worked.

2. How much is the Initiation Fee?

The ADIT Initiation Fee is a one-time deduction of $25.00. All new employees including Per Diem employees will pay an Initiation Fee. Casual employees do not pay an Initiation Fee.

3. When does the Initiation Fee and dues start being deducted?

The Initiation Fee is deducted within the first 30 days of your employment. The dues are deducted following the completion of the first 30 days of employment and on each pay period thereafter.

4. Do I have to fill out the Service Fees Deduction Authorization form?

Yes, you must fill out the Service Fees Deduction Authorization form. This form authorizes your Hospital to automatically deduct dues from your salary.

5. What if I don't want to join the ADIT?

You may resign your membership in ADIT, but the amount set forth will be deducted from your salary, to be paid to ADIT, for the services provided by ADIT unless applicable federal or state laws permit a lesser amount. This amount will be called a service fee. Failure to pay the service fee shall be grounds for immediate dismissal.